CONNECTING PEOPLE TO THE ARTS

The Ohio Arts Council (OAC) is a state agency that funds and supports quality arts experiences to strengthen Ohio communities culturally, educationally, and economically.

Festivals are a source of great pride for local communities and provide a venue for public engagement in the arts in Ohio. The Ohio Arts Festivals & Competitions Directory is a free resource for the public to engage with the arts and for artists to discover opportunities. Competitive exhibitions showcase Ohio's wealth of artistic talent and encourage artists through exposure and awards. From juried exhibitions to multi-day festivals, arts-and-crafts bazaars to seasonal events—these experiences play a crucial role in enhancing cultural tourism, celebrating our heritage, and supporting Ohio's economy.

The complete unabridged version of the 2016 Ohio Festivals & Competitions Directory can be found online. oac.ohio.gov/news-events/festival-directory

ABOUT

The Ohio Arts Council (OAC) collected event information during an online submission window in the fall of 2015. Information is arranged by date, location, and type of event. Events are categorized as either festivals or competitions. General information for each listing is presented in the first paragraph followed by details for artists, craftspeople, and performers. An alphabetical index of Festivals by Region and a listing of Ohio's Convention and Visitors' Bureaus are included in the back of the directory.

Competitions, or competitive exhibitions, are classified as juried, nonjuried, invitational or juried invitational, according to information supplied at the time of listing.

JURIED: A neutral panel or juror reviews each applicant's work or slides and makes final selection decisions.

NONJURIED: All applicants are accepted until all spaces are filled, first-come first-served.

INVITATIONAL: Promoters or their staff select exhibitors from applications or by direct invitations.

JURIED INVITATIONAL: A neutral panel or juror, past and present, reviews all applicants, then the panel or juror makes recommendations to the promoter or chairperson who makes final selection decisions.

NOTICE

Listings in the Ohio Arts Festivals & Competitions Directory have been compiled based on information supplied by proprietors and promoters of the individual festivals and competitions. The OAC is not responsible for the accuracy of this information. Information may be subject to change. Prior to traveling, please confirm dates and locations of festivals by visiting the festival's website. This information may not be comprehensive.

Artists and craftspeople should be aware that a listing does not constitute an endorsement by the OAC of any particular festival or competition or its promoter or proprietor. Artists and craftspeople are advised to conduct their own inquiries about any event that interests them.

While we aim to create an extensive guide, the directory is not a complete listing of all Ohio festivals. Art enthusiasts may discover other worthwhile festivals, events, and arts destinations by calling 1-800-BUCKEYE, contacting local convention and visitors' bureaus around the state which are listed on pages 76-83, or by visiting ArtsinOhio.com.
